Common Loon is a psych-rock-pop duo comprised of Illinoisans Matthew Campbell and Robert Hirschfeld, who have known each other since Kindergarten (for real). On Common Loon's debut album, The Long Dream of Birds, the duo traffics in dreamy, dayglo rock, blending classic West Coast harmonies with some classic shoegazing guitar-lushness. Names being dropped include Sparklehorse, Sebadoh, Spacemen 3's extended family, Granddaddy, Apples In Stereo, Olivia Tremor Control...

Common Loon will embark on a 30-date nationwide tour in early April, hit select markets & festivals this Summer and plan another national tour in late-Summer & early-Fall.
